Please be sure you have confirmed that Vanguard Claims Administration, Inc. (VCA) is the proper third-party provider (TPA) for the loss runs you are requesting today. As such; VCA handles claims for only certain policies. If you have requested information on a policy where VCA is not the named TPA, you will receive a "No Losses" letter for that policy, even though a claim may exist under that policy. VCA makes every effort to identify the requests that have been sent in error and notify the requester. However, please be advised that the information provided is not intended to be all encompassing and only reflects data/results based on insurance claims handled by VCA as the third-party administrator.
